PORT WINE

DOURO - PORTUGAL

"Imagine letting half a century in oak barrels a Porto to evolve. The 50 Years Old Tawny revealing not only its superb color gold, but the finesse of a multitude of aromas such as butterscotch, the nutmeg, toasted almonds, hint of spices or roasted notes. The long finish is sublimated by the power of the different flavors and remain smooth: when liveness meets delicacy."

Produced on the Douro slopes, this nectar is a legacy of artisanal mastery, passed down from generation to generation.

Each year of aging is like a silent witness to years of dedication and knowledge, like a journey through time, that transports us to the secrets kept in our century-old cellars. On this journey, we are compelled to reflect on the power of wine not just as a drink, but as a link between past and present, between tradition and innovation. It's the harmony between these elements that make our 50 Years Old Tawny Port wine a masterpiece of oenology, a source of pleasure and inspiration.
